

The purpose of this bible study. . .

...is to meditate upon the phrasings in Lord's Prayer through music, journaling, and discussion and experience a deeper meaning and impact of them in our lives.

The Lord's Prayer may be committed to memory quickly, but it is slowly learned by heart.

English Anglican theologian and author

Select a question to discuss or Journal about

1. How do you know you are fulfilling God's will in your life?
2. Share a time when you purposely went against God's will.
What did you do and what was the end result?
3. What is the most difficult part of waiting for God's will to be done?
4. How do you answer the question, "Why would God do this to me?"
5. Have you ever struggled to understand God's will? What was the situation and how did you deal with it?

A THRONE

After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, and crying out with a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!
